

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

Our Community of Honor

You have a Right to...

- An environment free from bullying and harassment and a responsibility to foster this environment.
- Freedom of speech and the responsibility to not slander or gossip about other students, faculty, and staff members in our community verbally or online through Facebook, Twitter, or other social media outlets.
- Embrace your identity (culture, sexual orientation, religious and political beliefs, etc.) and a responsibility to not pressure others about their personal identity.
- Report without fear of retaliation, any behavior that goes against our Honor Code, the Student Code of Conduct or any behavior that makes you uncomfortable.

You Have a Responsibility to uphold our community of honor.

CC Students have rights and responsibilities. Each member of our community is expected to display honorable behavior. Please contact the Division of Student Affairs at 786-3856 if you are aware of incidents that violate our community of honor.

Responsibility ♦ Integrity ♦ Respect ♦ Compassion
